

Allenbuild wins over £75m of orders:

£12.4m in North West

Allenbuild, which has its North West regional base in Wigan, has secured over £75m worth of orders since April.

In the North West these include the £7m Etrop Court three-storey retail and office development for Redman Heenan Properties Ltd. The design & build contract commenced in May and is to be completed in April next year. This is part of the £100m regeneration of Wythenshawe town centre which is being delivered by St. Modwen in partnership with Manchester City Council.

Also started this month is a £3.8m two-storey 30,000 sq ft office extension to the rear of the Headquarters Building for Lancashire Constabulary at Hutton. The 41-week contract will be completed in February next year and will be the third project undertaken by Allenbuild for Lancashire Police. One of the previous contracts was the £11.6m provision of Operational Custody Suites at Preston and Lancaster

In Wigan Allenbuild is working again in partnership with Wigan Council to undertake the £1.6m refurbishment and extension to St James' CE Primary School at Worsley Mesnes. The work commenced in May and will take 28 weeks to complete.

Nationally, Allenbuild is also commencing the £44m Campus Redevelopment for Kirklees College in Huddersfield at the Waterfront Quarter of the town and in Notting Hill, London, a £21m, 212 unit housing development for Notting Hill Home Ownership.

Steve Kelly Managing Director of the North West region of Allenbuild commented: "We are delighted to have secured these contracts, particularly with clients who we have worked successfully with previously. In this very competitive environment I am confident that Allenbuild will continue to deliver value for money for our clients. These schemes will enable us to continue to expand our track record in these sectors as well as providing security for our employees and suppliers."

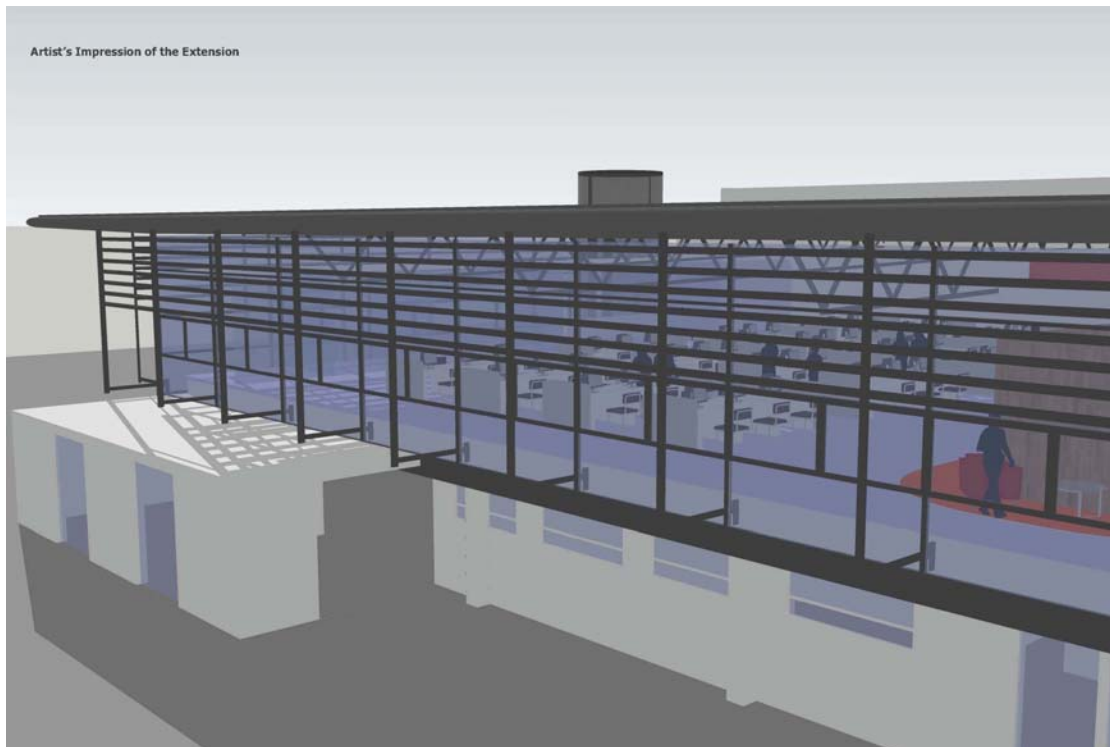

Allenbuild is part of the Renew Holdings Plc group of companies.
